David Baldacci has been writing since childhood, when his mother gave him a lined notebook in which to write down his stories. (Much later, when David thanked her for being the spark that ignited his writing career, she revealed that she'd given him the notebook to keep him quiet, "because every mom needs a break now and then.")

Stone Cold \(Camel Club, #3\) by David Baldacci

The fiction book, Stone Cold by David Baldacci was amazing! My book was about a man, Oliver Stone and the rest of the members of the Camel Club. This club is a club of civilian troublemakers in Washington DC. They all got along well until Annabelle Conroy, the first woman to join the group, which disrupts the flow of the once just men group. I really liked this book because instead of a lot of
