Introduction to Logic and Critical Thinking (Merrilee Salmon) I wish I had a copy of this text in graduate school when I was taking philosophy of science courses, because the sections on probabilities and inductive logic, and the logic of hypothesis testing and confirmation, are so much better than you find in most critical thinking texts.

PHIL 120 \(3 cr\): Introduction to Logic and Critical Thinking

This course is an introduction both to logic and to critical thinking, assuming no previous work in logic or philosophy. The critical thinking portion of the course covers the distinction between logic and rhetoric, the distinction between deductive and inductive arguments, the analysis of ambiguities and the nature of common fallacies in reasoning. In the logic portion of the course, the
